

Myrtle Trace Community Celebrates 40 Years

1983-2023

In addition to our regular News & Views calendar listing, the following dates will reflect events being held to commemorate our four decades. Please note that several may require RSVP's in order to plan for seating & food.

September 23, 6:00 -- 9:00 p.m.

Oktoberfest Dinner.

- A traditional German festival style dinner with Bavarian music.
- Munich and American beers, Riesling wine, soda, water and BYOB if you choose.
- Cost: $15. per person.
- Reservations will be required. Look for the flyer in the News & Views.
- RSVP by September 15:

Drop off reservation to Bob & Cathy Smith: 134 Myrtle Trace Drive, red box at their entrance way.

October 1, 2:00 p.m.

October 12, 10:00 a.m.

History Presentation by Tom Allen, Architect for our community.

- This chronicles the development, initial designs, with original photographs of how the inception of our community came into existence. It's the answer to those teasers in the News & Views!
- Reservations will be required for both dates. Please indicate which date is preferred.
- Arrival time will start 30 minutes before the listed times. Look for the flyer in the News & Views.

- RSVP by September 25 to the following:

October 1st event contact: Ellen Elliott 843-234-2449 or eelliott@sccoast.net

October 12th event contact: Jennie Jenemann 843-347-7569.

October 4, 10:00 a.m.

Café Yesteryear

- Were you the first people to live in your house? Phase I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VII, or VIII?
- Please come by to visit with your neighbors who are also “original” owners!
- Share the stories of the early years while enjoying coffee and refreshments.
- Bring your memories and old pictures to share!
- RSVP by September 27 to:

Anne Kongvold, 347-534-7454

Janet McGrady, 843-347-7652.

October 9, 5:30 p.m.

Chowder Cook-off (setup time for cooks will be 4:30).

- This will really show the culinary skills of the Myrtle Trace cooks: using your crockpots the challenge is who can make the best chowder recipe—any kind!
- THE WINNER WILL HAVE THEIR RECIPE PUBLISHED IN THE “News & Views”.
- For planning all cooks and samplers need to register.
- RSVP by October 1 to:

Bob Smith 134 Myrtle Trace Drive, red box at front door.

October 15, 3:00 -- 6:00 p.m.

Open House

- Stop in anytime between the hours of 3 pm to 6 pm to socialize and celebrate your community!
- From the inception of Myrtle Trace, we will have multiple forms of media providing the how, when, and where the vision turned into a reality.

- Ron Grove will relate stories of the progress and development as well as corresponding worldwide trivia which shows our timeline.
- Our very own, Jeff DiMaio, will be on the piano!
- Wine, and appetizers will be served!
- Look for your invitation in your paper tube soon!
- RSVP by October 5th to:

Jane Bliss 609-315-7629

Pam Reinhart 843-591-0126.

October 21 & 22, 1:00 -- 5:00 p.m.

MT Gallery of Ageless Art Show (inside the clubhouse).

- Myrtle Trace's own artists will be able to exhibit their varied works in the clubhouse these two days.
- This is a chance to see the talent and versatility within our community.
- Come and show your support!

October 21, 1:00 -- 4:00 p.m.

Classic Wheels Event!

- This event will be held on Pear Tree Circle, where you will be able to view, stroll by, or take your picture with the classic cars, motorcycles, and golfcarts that make you turn your head when driving by your house!!! Daytona Speedway has nothing on us.
- Have lunch while you are here! The Big C Hot Dog Truck will be on hand.
- Look for the flyer in the News & Views to register your vehicle by September 30th.
- *Rain date October 22nd
- Chairperson: Curtis Jacobites, 176 Glenwood Drive, 774-291-9291

October 28, 6:00 -- 9:00 p.m.

Halloween Dance at the clubhouse.

- Are you a Retro dresser? Will you be an Historical figure? Or a throwback to the “Wall Street” era (remember Michael Douglas’s movie)? Prizes to be awarded for the most original costume, especially if we cannot recognize you!!
- Costume is optional.
- Music by -- FOREVER DOO-WOP GROUP.
- Cost $15.00 per person, cutoff date is 10/22.
- Look for the flyer in the News & Views.